Introduction:

India is the sixth-largest economy in the world (as per nominal GDP) and the second-most populous country with over 1.33 billion people. It is one of the few countries that continue to see brisk growth in spite of the ongoing volatile environment at a global level. With favourable population composition and increasing disposable incomes, Indian consumer market is expected to grow significantly in medium to long term. While the consumption story encompasses a large number of sectors, there are select trends shaping the sectors running on consumer theme and the investment opportunities that they present. Some of these are new, while others are trends that have existed for the past few years and continue to manifest themselves in new ways. All these factors can go a long way in driving the overall secular (unaffected by cycles) consumption growth in the country. Consumption forms a very large part of the Indian economy of which Consumer Non-Durables, Consumer Durables, Auto, Retailing, Media & Entertainment, Hotels, Resorts and Other Recreational Activities, Textile Products forms a basic basket of the same.

Despite the economic setbacks being seen during the ongoing crisis, the one story that has remained intact is the Indian consumption story. Consumers moving up the income ladder are likely to demand more and better-quality branded goods and digital connectivity is likely to drive consumption trends in India. Economic recovery and growth along with improving demographics, increase in disposable income of the population and government initiatives could act as enablers and foster urbanization and contribute to increase in per capita income and consumption demand going forward.

About the Fund:
